PUBLIC HEARING: No one was in attendance regarding the public hearing on Pet Services.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

- A) Pet Services Ordinance - Vice Chairman London agreed with the addition of adding the C-2 District to the proposed ordinance. Superintendent Strayer asked if there were any questions or changes by the board for the ordinance. He had received email correspondence from the County stating that they would no longer be involved in the process of reviewing township ordinances. Motion was made by Janis to approve (Ordinance No. 128) regarding Pet Services and to forward to the township board for their approval. Second by Romero

PUBLIC COMMENTS: None

COMMISSIONERS' COMMENTS:

Commissioner Janis has a suggestion for repairs to the exercise equipment at Children's Park.

Superintendent Strayer gave a summary of some projects that are being added or considered for the township: new bike racks and a park bench that was donated will be included at Shoreline Park, dog waste stations will be added to the Township Hall, Children's Park, and the Senior Center.

Pardington suggested he saw interest in other communities for a dog park. Superintendent Strayer said the board had included a discussion of a dog park at the Capital Improvement Meeting and the possibility of grants that would apply.
