OLD BUSINESS:

- A) Zoning Ordinance #137 Discussion Ron Phillips the Zoning Enforcement Officer came to the meeting to discuss his observations regarding the RV Storage in the front of residences in the Township. He also expressed his desire to leave the Ordinance in its present form with no changes. After some discussion it was decided that the Ordinance should stay the way it was with some small changes. Motion was made by Janis and seconded by London to cancel section 137B(3) as drawn up by Denise Cline from NEMSCOG, but leave in the additions of 137E which states that Recreational vehicles which are stored shall not be connected to water, sewer, and electricity.
- B) Short Term Rental Discussion After some discussion on the Short Term Rentals, it was decided to table the discussion until another time. Residents that have a problem with neighbors will have to use the Police department, or call the company responsible for the Rental for enforcement.
